Jewish Family Services of Silicon Valley (JFS SV) empowers individuals and families facing life's challenges by providing quality human services inspired by Jewish values. Since our inception in 1977, we have remained committed to our vision that children, adults, and families in our community have access to affordable and meaningful professional services that help give them a better life. The agency's programs are available without regard to race, religion, sexual orientation, or ability to pay.

Job Summary:

Jewish Family Services of Silicon Valley is seeking a compassionate and skilled therapist to work with adults, families, and older adults. The therapist will provide therapy services, including assessments, individual, family and group therapy, to help clients achieve their mental health goals. The therapist will also be expected to provide telehealth services as needed.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide individual, family and group therapy to adults, families and older adults.
- Conduct assessments to determine clients' mental health needs and treatment goals.
- Develop and implement treatment plans, incorporating evidence-based interventions and culturally sensitive practices.
- Maintain accurate and timely clinical documentation and progress notes.
- Collaborate with other mental health professionals and community resources to ensure comprehensive care for clients.
- Participate in case conferences, staff meetings, and professional development activities to enhance clinical skills and knowledge.
- Maintain professional boundaries, ethics, and confidentiality in accordance with the organization's policies and ethical guidelines.
- Assist with outreach and education activities to promote mental health awareness and reduce stigma.

Qualifications & Skills:

- Familiarity with evidence-based practices and culturally sensitive approaches to mental health treatment, particularly with regards to the unique needs of older adults.
- Knowledge of age-related physical, cognitive, and emotional changes, and their impact on mental health.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team in a fast-paced environment.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office and electronic health records systems.

Requirements:

- Master's degree in social work, psychology, counseling, or a related field.
- Licensed or registered with the California Board of Behavioral Sciences.
- Minimum of two years of experience providing therapy to adults, families and/or older adults.
- Must have NPI number or will obtain one upon hiring.

Salary and Benefits:

Salary Range: $75,000-$85,000

This position is full time, 37.5 hours/week. JFS SV provides a highly competitive salary and benefits program. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience of the selected candidate.

Benefits include medical, dental and vision care; company contributions to 403B retirement plan; generous paid time off (incl. secular as well as Jewish holidays and vacation); 100% paid membership to onsite fitness center; supportive colleagues; and a positive work environment on a beautiful campus.

Jewish Family Services of Silicon Valley is an equal opportunity employer and values diversity at all levels of the organization. We do not discriminate based on race, religion, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, veteran status, or disability status.
